MASTER PLAN UPDATE SUBCOMMITTEE PUBLIC MEMBER APPLICATION

The Summit Village Board and Plan Commission would like to have up to four residents serve on the Village Master Plan Update subcommittee. The two groups will review the applications and nominate up to four residents of the Village to work with them on the 10-year Plan Update. To help these groups with these appointments, please complete the information below and return to the Village Planner's office by 12:00 noon on January 13, 2021. The groups will review submissions and announce the public members at their February meetings.

The appointees will be expected to participate in monthly public meetings in the evening, interact with Village Board members, Plan Commissioners and village staff, and participate in public open house and public hearing events throughout the process. The overall project is expected to last through December, 2021.
